

Financial Assistance provided by Newport City Council for Gwent Music activities is available as follows:

- To cover participation in Gwent Music activities.
- This can be made up of music centre fees and/or a contribution towards the cost of school lessons or individual lessons up to £100 per child, per academic term.
- Child must be in receipt of free school meals.
- The application must be signed and approved by Head Teacher/classroom teacher of the school attended by the child. This is to support the application and to confirm that certain criteria have been fulfilled such as good attendance at school. Poor attendance at lessons may result in future applications being declined.
- Applications are assessed on a first come, first served basis. Once the full grant has been allocated no further funding will be available until the next financial year.
- Balance payment may be due to cover full/actual cost of lessons/activities.
- This grant does not cover physical resources i.e. instruments, music, exam entries, etc.
